

8. Did your mother, Ellen R. Brane leave any estate at the time of her death?

A. She left no personal property at the time of her death excepting a few items of household furniture not worth administering on, but left a house and lot of land on Jefferson Street in Middletown, Maryland, having a frontage on said street of _____ feet, and running back to an alley.

9. What do you think the property is worth?

A. I believe it ought to be worth about $500.00.

10. Can it be divided amongst the parties in interest ~~to~~ in the land, without loss or injury?

A. No it is just a house and lot and could not be divided.

To the general interrogatory?

That is all.
